Organized by Korea Institute for Advanced Study (KIAS)

Invited Speakers

Scott Aaronson (MIT)
Sergey Bravyi (IBM)
Kihwan Kim (Tsinghua U)
Christian Kurtsiefer (NUS, Singapore)
Ashley Montanaro (U Bristol)
Yasunobu Nakamura (RIKEN and U Tokyo)
Jian Wei Pan (USTC, Hefei)
Renato Renner (ETH, Zurich)

Tutorial Speakers

Dagmar Bruss (U Duesseldorf)
Jiangfeng Du (USTC, Hefei)
Daniel Nagaj (SAS, Bratislava)
Jaw-Shen Tsai (RIKEN)

Important Dates:

[all 23:59 Anywhere on Earth(AoE) in 2015]

- Submission deadline: June 11
- Acceptance notification: July 11
- Final manuscript deadline: July 25
- Early Registration deadline: July 25
- Tutorials: August 24
- Main conference: August 25-28
- Satellite Meeting: August 29-30

The AQIS'15 conference will focus on quantum information processing, communication and cryptography in the aspect of both physics and information theory. Program consists of invited talks, selected oral and poster presentations as well as tutorials and satellite workshop(s).

Contributions are solicited in (but not limited to) the following areas:

- Quantum computation, algorithms and complexity
- Quantum information theory
- Concepts, methods and tools against decoherence
- Quantum cryptography
- Quantum communications experiments and theory
- Quantum technologies (optics, atomic physics, and solid-state physics, etc)
- Quantum processor and computer design
