1 Format of the Manuscripts

The camera-ready version should be sent to aqis@ustc.edu.cn via e-mail. It should follow the style described below.

Basic Format:

- The manuscript should be typeset with the style files available at http://lqcc.ustc.edu.cn/aqis06/ cameraready.html and prepared in the Postscript format or PDF<sup>1</sup>.
- The manuscript should not exceed two pages including the title page, using A4-sized papers.
- No page of the manuscript should contain page numbers/page headings.

Layout:

- The manuscript should have top-, foot-, and sidemargins of 2cm, 2.5cm, and 1.5cm, respectively (the title page should have top margin of 3cm).
- The manuscript should begin with a title, followed by names, affiliations and postal addresses of authors, followed by a 100-word abstract and keywords. The main body should use two-column style. E-mail addresses of authors should be placed in footnotes.

2 Theorems and Proofs

Our style file prepares the following environments.

Environment name	Heading
definition	Definition
theorem	Theorem
lemma	Lemma
corollary	Corollary
proposition	Proposition example	Example
remark	Remark
fact	Fact
conjecture	${f Conjecture}$

3 Figures and Tables

For figures and tables, the captions should be placed below figures and above tables.

4 Bibliography Styles

The following bibliography style used in this document is preferable. The authors may use common abbreviations for journal and conference names.
